While I am glad to meet your escort or companion, I would prefer that models not bring guests to my studio or my location unless I specifically request their presence. If you need to be kept company by anything other than my camera during your shoot, you're wasting your money and I'm wasting my time.

No cameras are to be brought to my studio or location by yourself or your escort. If a photo is taken that person may be required to leave immediately after deleting/removing the image(s) captured.
